Original Miscellany.

THE THEATRE.

To hold the mirror up to nature:
To show the very age & body of the times,
Its form and pressure.—Shakespeare.

In the remarks which follow, it is not my design to invite controversy on the subject of dramatic entertainments. I have too high a regard for the reputation of a newspaper to wish to occupy its columns with disputations which can be interesting to but few, and which will receive the condemnation of a large class of readers, with whom the name of Shakespeare (which I have introduced) is synonymous with lewdness and irreligion, and who make up their minds on the value of an essay from the mere knowledge of the fact that its object is to calumniate and amuse their fellow-citizens. Without venturing an assertion, therefore, which can tend to excite the ire or provoke the resentment of my opponents, I shall carefully proceed to invite the public attention to the encouragement of dramatic representations, and hint the propriety of giving its aid to the permanent establishment of a theatrical corps in Alexandria.

It is an incontrovertible fact that the introduction of stage representations contributed more than any other power to the civilization of the ancient barbarians, and to the introduction of those sciences for which they afterwards became so distinguished. The memories of Eschylus, Euripides and Thespis are still venerated as the founders of a glorious era in Greece, and, while a spark of gratitude remains, will never be forgotten.

For a long time Rome cultivated the dramatic arts, and rapidly advanced in refinement. During this period she was engaged in innumerable wars. The Goths and Vandals made repeated irruptions into her territory, while desolation and ruin marked their footsteps—

"Fair science from her throne of light was hurled,
And a long night of fully curst the world."

The dark and bloody scenes which followed this event had almost extinguished every ray of civilization. Greece had been conquered and despoiled; Rome, enervated beyond the power of governing, had sunk within the vortex of voluptuous dissipation, and the world was relapsing into its former state of savage barbarity.

It remained for England to reclaim the wanderings of the muse, and revive the spark of science which neglect had nearly extinguished. A new era was about to commence, and under the guidance of Elizabeth, a star was to arise whose lustre would continue forever.

"When Learning's triumph o'er her bar-brous foes
First rear'd the stage, immortal Shakespeare rose;
A mortal born, he met the general doom,
But left, like Egypt's kings, a lasting tomb."

From the birth of Shakespeare may be dated the rise of the drama. The admiration of the people in his favor bordered on enthusiasm; and I am warranted in saying that no one event in ancient or modern history had half the effect in reforming the manners of the people, or in contributing to their real improvement. The encouragement given to genius produced many authors of admired talents, whose writings could give a tone to the public feeling—could rouse the passions into an exercise of virtue and philanthropy, or animate them, when necessary, to deeds of valor. From the influence of the drama upon the dispositions of the people, governments were convinced of the important truth—that THEIR PROSPERITY DEPENDS UPON THE LIBERAL ENCOURAGEMENT OF SCIENCE AND LITERATURE.

I have here taken a brief view of the size of the drama. It is a subject which will admit of an elaborate description—but want of room has compelled me to make use of no more than sufficient to answer my purpose.

From the days of Shakespeare until this time the world have been favored with brilliant specimens of dramatic genius, and many countries have given birth to actors who have reached the height of their profession. And what has been the consequence? Have mankind degenerated? Are our own laws less pure—our manners less refined? Are our morals more corrupt—our dispositions more prone to luxury, or even thoughtless frivolity? I know that these questions will admit of argumentative answers; and I also know that they cannot be answered in the affirmative.

I have been led to these remarks from reading an article in the Herald, intimating that the Alexandria Theatre is undergoing a repair, previous to the introduction of a dramatic corps, under the direction of Messrs. Caldwell & Entwistle, which is to be in readiness to perform on the 28th instant. The editors of the Herald have paid a very just compliment to the talents of these gentlemen, and have also given us to understand that the company generally is well worthy of patronage.

We have, for the few last years, had occasional repasts from a part of the Baltimore Company, which have been handsomely rewarded by our citizens. But even this favor was the last summer denied us. Why the purveyors at Baltimore suspended their annual visits I have not been able to learn. They may have thought themselves poorly paid for their exertions. I hope a future company will never have it in its power to cast upon us such a reflection.

The idea of performing here in the winter will, I am persuaded, induce many to frequent the theatre who have heretofore permitted the heat of August and September to prevent their visiting it. As the theatre will be rendered comfortably warm, the operation of the cold can never deter any from attending.

DRAMATICUS.

AGRICULTURAL.

LAWLER WHEAT.

Mr. Editor,

A writer in the Baltimore Federal Gazette, has published a statement, which is reprinted in your paper and several others, on the subject of this wheat, and says, that "it is now ascertained by actual experiment in this state, that the wheat known by the name of the Lawler Wheat, is not secure from the ravages of the Hessian fly."—That "within a few days the young blade has been blighted as with a blast from a furnace."

This information, if the wheat sown was, as it is called, truly the Lawler wheat, is presumed to be premature. It is one of the characteristic distinctions of that wheat to fire (as it is usually termed by farmers,) and this it has frequently done to a considerable degree in the fall season, when the wheat has been sufficiently advanced to commence tillering on light soils of any kind, such as slate or sandy. This appearance is more common in the fall, but it is uniformly the case in spring on all kinds of soil. It is difficult to affix a precise idea to the terms used, of the plant being "blighted as with a blast from a furnace." It is presumed it is not all consumed and dissipated. If it has the appearance of having been scorched or fired, a term well understood, it is only a proof of the wheat being genuine, as it has exhibited the cause most generally assigned for its exemption from injury.

In relation to the same appearance of destruction having taken place on the Eastern Shore of Virginia, but one instance of the kind has occurred that the writer has any knowledge of.—A gentleman in Prince William county, sowed some time in July, the Lawler, the purple straw, and the golden bearded, adjoining each other. When they first came up the fly appeared in all of them, and in all threatened destruction; it was however very soon after perceived that the Lawler was defending itself by means of its stronger or more rigid quality.—In a few weeks the Lawler wheat perfectly recovered from the apparent check it had received, while the other two kinds continued to dwindle and finally were extirpated; the Lawler wheat alone remains and is as fine as any wheat perhaps has ever been seen at this season.

The publication is therefore pronounced premature, if gentlemen who have sowed the Lawler wheat will suspend their public notice of the subject, till the first or middle of May, they will be better able to pronounce on the qualities of this wheat; and should in any instance an injury appear to be done by the Hessian fly, to trace the growth of the seed and state from whom obtained.

The public are referred to the different statements made in the course of the summer on the subject, in none of which it is stated that the fly has not been seen among this wheat, but what is more essential, to state as they have done, that it has never been injured, and to that fact, the only one of importance, there is abundance of testimony. The certificate of the farmers in Chester county, Pennsylvania, published in the Intelligencer, early in Sept. (I think the 5th) is perfectly correct, according to the experience in Virginia.

It is hoped that this paragraph will be published in the newspapers which have republished that alluded to in the Federal Gazette.

Abraham G. Claypoole, of Philadelphia, is appointed Cashier of the United States Branch Bank at Chillicothe, Ohio. The institution is expected to commence about the first of December.

William Cochran, of Philadelphia, is appointed Cashier of the Branch to be established at Louisville, Kentucky.

The Minister of Portugal, (the Chevalier Correa de Serra) has taken up his winter residence in the city.

The British Envoy (Mr. Bagot) is the only Foreign Minister who has, for some time past, been a regular resident here. He has lately returned to the city from a friendly visit to Mr. Madison, at his seat in Virginia.

STATE OF MISSISSIPPI.

At the late general election in the state of Mississippi, Duncan Stuart was elected Lieutenant Governor of the State.

Charleston, Nov. 11.

INDIAN NEWS.

We learn by an officer of the army, who arrived in town on Sunday last, direct from Fort Hawkins, that hostilities are expected immediately to break out between our troops and the Seminole Indians. Gen. Gaines, with his force took up the line of march from Fort Montgomery, on the Alabama, to Fort Scott, on the Flint River, about the 27th ult, where he was to be joined by about 600 Creek Indian warriors, who would make his army, including regulars, militia and Indians, amount to about 2,500 men. The Seminoles are said to have in the field 1,500 warriors. Gen. Jackson and suite, it was expected, would join Gen. Gaines at Fort Scott.

The officer above alluded to, was dispatched here to procure four field-pieces for the expedition, and will return immediately.

We learn that Gen. Gaines made a demand upon the Seminoles for the murderers of seven whites—they refused, and in reply, stated, that our people had killed ten of their tribe, and demanded the balance to be given up to them, as the only condition on which they would make peace. The General made no further reply, but immediately put his troops in motion, to operate against them.

Milledgeville, Nov. 4.

We are informed that a large portion of the country lately ceded to the United States by the Cherokee Indians, in exchange for an equal quantity of western land, is found, on investigation, to be within the limits of the Creek nation.—The conflicting claims of these tribes to the disputed territory has been settled in an amicable manner (although, at one time, the controversy was likely to produce a war between them) by a council of their respective chiefs, chosen to discuss and decide the matter. It is a suitable indemnity to be made to our government by the Cherokees, the existing treaty with them on this subject will doubtless be annulled.

We have no recent information from general Gaines. The last accounts of his contemplated expedition against the hostile Florida Indians left his whole regular force on their march for Fort Scott, which is in the vicinity of the unfriendly savages. It is not improbable but his approach will inspire such dread as to cause them to sue for peace, and thus prevent the effusion of blood.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.

About 7 o'clock on Saturday evening, a fire broke out in the house occupied by Nathaniel Parke, on the south side of Washington-street (formerly Lion-street) in the midst of an extensive row of wooden buildings. The wind was southwest, and ere the fire was checked, increased to a smart breeze. The flames, notwithstanding the accustomed exertions of the firemen and citizens, spread with rapidity to the west, until twenty-one buildings were consumed or pulled down. The occupants of this row were principally small grocers, mechanics and laborers, many of them in indigent circumstances; and from the rapidity with which the flames spread, a considerable portion of their furniture, clothing, &c. was consumed.—Some cases are related to us, where the sufferers lost their all. The destitute situation of many, at this inauspicious season, presents strong claims upon the liberality of the affluent and benevolent, and we have no doubt there exists on the part of our citizens a willingness to extend relief to such as stand in need of it.

New-York, Nov. 14.

Capt. Bedlow, of the schr. Mary and Elizabeth, from St. Thomas, informs, that about the 20th of Oct. a hurricane was experienced off Guadaloupe and Martinique, which has done considerable damage to vessels in that quarter.—The brig Alice, Wilson, of Salem, from Martinique, had arrived at St. Thomas, with the loss of masts, bowsprit, boats, and every thing off deck; a man named Daniel Neal, was killed by the fall of the mainmast. The brig Nancy, of Bristol, and schr. Union, of Salem, were drove off the captains of both vessels being on shore. Every vessel was drove out of St. Pierre, but two before the A. The captain of the Alice could see none on shore; but fell in with several dismasted vessels after the hurricane; one of which, was a schr. full of water, and no person on board—could see the name of "John," on her stern, and another word which looked very much like "Bath."—The brig Formax, of New-Orleans, last from New York, with loss of masts, sails, rudder, &c. condemned by survey at St. Thomas. The schr. Live Oak, Hunt, of New York, bound to Curacao, put into St. John, Porto Rico, on the 22d October, with the loss of the mainmast and all her sails.

From the Boston Daily Advertiser.

The governor and intendant of the island of Martinique have issued a decree revoking the permission granted in January last for the free importation of Flour and Grain, as follows:

Art. 1. From and after the tenth day of October next inclusively, FOREIGN WHEAT FLOUR shall no longer be admitted into the ports of this colony.

Art. 2. From the same date, accustomed duties upon RICE, INDIAN CORN &c. which had been suspended, shall be established and received.

The present decree shall be registered.—It shall also be published, and inserted in the Gazette of Martinique.

Given at Martinique, under the seal of our arms, at the countersign of our secretaries, 20th September, 1817.

Le Compt de VANGIRARD, By the Gov. General, SECRETARY GEN. of the Govern't. DURAND MOLARD, DU BUC, by M. the Intendant Secretary General of the Intendency. FOURNIER.

Kingston, (Jam.) Oct. 6.

We have to congratulate our readers, in this quarter at least, on the appearance of the seasons setting in at last, which we hope will be the means of saving some of the Guinea corn already planted, as well as enabling the seed to be generally sown. We have heard of good crops being obtained, though planted at a much later period, when the soil has been good. In the district extending from Old Harbor to Kingston, including the whole of Salt Ponds, such a drought has not been experienced since the year 1793. Fortunately, some other parishes, and even the mountainous part of this, have been blessed with excellent seasons.

[St. Jago Gaz.]

October 15.

We have been favored with Mexican Gazettes, from which we have translated the following:

MEXICO.

The extraordinary Gazette of 12th August, says:

"Guatemala, 5th Aug.

"We have certain information that Mina, Moreno, Ortices, and Borja who joined the three former with two hundred of his party, are all surrounded in the fort at Comayja, by the detachments sent in pursuit of them. The situation of these insurgents is such, that they cannot escape. Every moment we expect the news of the taking of the fort. Our artillery are within pistol-shot of it, and the Cazadores de Navarra, and of the American battalion, are under its guns; the former have taken a small battery, and cut off the supplies of water. Within, there are 400 horses, and very little provisions."

"Irapuato, Aug. 5.

"Colonel Juan Resguera writes—have just learnt by a courier from Silan, that our troops have completely besieged Mina, Borja and Moreno, in Comayja; that Navarra took from them a battery, and our artillery has done them a great deal of injury. The battery that is taken from them, is the one which supplied the water."

We are informed, Comayja is situated about one hundred leagues north westerly of the city of Mexico, and in that part of the kingdom where the only remains of the insurgent people of color are to be found; but so few and so scattered, as to be considered nothing. Three thousand mules arrived lately at Vera Cruz, from the interior of the country, with its various productions, and unattended by any escort. This shows the tranquil state of that kingdom.

October 17.

In consequence of the representation of the corporate body to his grace the duke of Manchester, relative to the prevalence of a malignant fever at Charleston, S. C. Porto Rico, and Porto Bello, orders have been issued to the men of war not to permit their boats to board any vessels from those places, till inspected by the health officer. Any person boarding vessels from the above places, will be liable to be detained while the vessels remain under quarantine.

DUTCH CRUELTY.

The horrible tragedy of Dutch cruelty, has already commenced in Java; and it will not stop here. The Quarterly Review, just published, contains the following account of a most atrocious transaction, to which we scarcely know where to look for any parallel, unless it be that of the Black Hole in Calcutta, the massacre of the English in Amboyna, or of the Chinese in Batavia, when the streets of that capital literally ran with blood. "We pledge ourselves (say the Reviewers) for the truth of the statement; and by exposing to the whole world a scene of such infamy, feel that we are performing a public duty.—May we hope that this exposure, will be the means of creating such universal indignation against the parties concerned in the bloody deed, as may prevent the recurrence of such inhuman and disgraceful transactions!

"Towards the latter end of November last, the Petingee, or chief of the village of Chippa Mooncong, in the district of Chatsem, named Keyas, observing dissatisfaction to prevail among the inhabitants of the district, in consequence of the unauthorised exactions of the Kapalo Chootack, and other natives, chiefs in authority over them, took advantage over the circumstance, and getting several other heads of villages to join, prevailed on a number of the lower class to assemble, under the ostensible plea of going to Indramayo, to lay their grievances before the "Landrust," as the president's assistant, who had charge of the police in those districts, was usually called.

"Having collected together a body of men in the first instance, small parties, under active emissaries, were dispatched to the neighboring districts to beat up for recruits, and many cases occurred of poor people being actually tied and forced to join the party. As they increased in numbers, the parties moved towards the river Chimanock, the boundary between the Indramayo districts and Cherribon, and in their route were joined by all who had or fancied they had any grievance to complain of.—Among these, it is understood that very few were from Kandang-houses; but some heads of villages and a considerable number of the lower class, are stated to have joined them from the district of Indramayo, and of the latter, a number from the lower Cragwang districts. At this stage of their progress, it appears to have been first circulated among them, that the Pungarian Kanooman might be expected from the "sea side," to join them as their chief. The Pungarian Kanooman, who, I understand, was banished during the Insurrection of Bagosus Rangun, is represented to be a descendant of one Seedan, who was first promoter of the disturbances in Cherribon formerly, and his family has always possessed great influence in the western part of that district.

"Whatever the real object or expectations of the leaders of the seduced people may have been, it is ascertained that not a single chief of rank above the head of a village, joined them, or appeared, in any manner, to give them support or countenance.

"By the time they arrived at Lobenar, a village situated on the banks of the Chimanook, 7 pail from Indramayo, the party amounted to about 900 men, which number it never exceeded. It is a fact well worthy of notice, that in the course of a desul-lory march of nearly fifty pails from Chiman to Lobenar, not an instance is known to have occurred of property of any kind having been injured, and although they remained stationary at Lobenar for many days, during which the rice, paddy, cattle, and other property of Mr. Muntzinghe, was most temptingly in their way, under the charge only of a few slaves, not a single article was touched...not a human being molested.

"Preparations were now in readiness by the residents of the Prianger Regencies and Cherribon to attack the insurgents, if they may be so called, and it was carried into execution at Lobenar, 20th December. It is estimated that one hundred of the insurgents fell in the engagement, and 594 were made prisoners. Keyas, who first commenced the insurrection, was observed to be very actively encouraging his men to repel Mr. Motman's attack, and this man was found among the killed. When the prisoners were disarmed, Mr. Motman, the Dutch resident, (whose conduct merits praise for courage and humanity) delivered them over to the military in order that they might be securely guarded to Indramayo. On their arrival there, they were put into a coffee storehouse, within the fort, and the storehouse surrounded with caninels.—In the course of the night, it is stated that an attempt was made on the part of the prisoners to escape from confinement—the soldiers on guard fired upon them, and horrible to relate, it ended in the massacre of about 300 souls, in cold blood, by the military, under the orders and in the presence of their own officers! Mr. Motman did all that was in his power to stop this dreadful sacrifice of human blood, but without effect; no attention seems to have been paid to his representations, and he was obliged to submit, as he declares, with feelings not to be described, to the spectacle of an unarmed multitude of poor misled creatures, whom he had vanquished and made prisoners in the morning, massacred by their guards, commanded by two officers, one bearing his Netherland Majesty's Commission of captain, and the other of Lieutenant, under the weak, inconceivable and inhuman pretext, that they could not be otherwise responsible for the security of their prisoners, or for their own safety.

"Will it be credited that a number of unarmed wretches, confined in a secure look wood building within a fort, should ever think of attacking a military force surrounding them as guards; and to whom they had but a few hours before surrendered themselves, while they had yet arms in their hands. He must be credulous indeed, who can bring his mind to believe this! If ever the truth comes to light, it will then, I am convinced, be found that an effort to give themselves fresh air, quite natural to so large a body of men confined in a building of comparatively small dimensions, the doors and windows of which were no doubt closed for security, was by the pusillanimity, if not the cruelty of their guards considered as an attempt to escape—and the scene of blood once begun, the prisoners apprehending what was to follow, made such resistance as they had in their power, in the vain hopes of saving their lives. But let this be as it may—those who remained alive from the massacre were embarked in coffee-prows, and dispatched up the river to Canony Samburg, and while on the river the second act of the tragedy took place. An attempt is said to have been again made by the prisoners to escape, and on this occasion, many more were sent to the other world to join their companions in misfortune. Indeed, so insatiable appears to have been the thirst for Javanese blood, that of 504 taken prisoners by Mr. Motman, on the day of engagement, but 113 arrived alive at this place, where they are now in confinement!

"Chiancor, 22d Jan. 1817." It is added that the Dutch had taken to themselves great merit for the gallant conduct displayed by their troops on this occasion. Poor Javanees! what a dreadful change of masters have you experienced.

Sully for Sale.

THIS estate, situated in the county of Fairfax, twenty two miles from Alexandria, and the same distance from Georgetown, contains about seven hundred and fifty acres. Little River Turnpike passes through it half a mile from the dwelling house. The situation is handsome, and remarkably healthy; the water is good and abundant. The soil which was originally excellent, has for some years past had the advantage of improving husbandry, Plaster of Paris acting on all grasses and grains. The fields present a good surface for cultivation; and those now unfilled, are covered with red clover. The orchards are very large and thrifty; the collection of table fruit is choice and various. The mansion is spacious and well constructed; the out-houses are conveniently situated, and the whole have been lately thoroughly repaired and painted. The farm houses, which are all nearly new, are expensive and excellent in their kind.

For a gentleman of leisure this would be a delightful residence; and a profitable estate for an active farmer. The title is indisputable, and perfectly unincumbered.

A number of well-taught orderly young men, with good stocks and farming utensils of all kinds, and the crops of the present year, if desired, will be at the command of the purchaser.

Application may be made to the subscriber, living on the premises, next the post-office at Pleasant Valley, in Fairfax.

FRANCIS LIGHTFOOT LEE.

For Sale.

A TRACT of land, lying on the North Fork of Quantico Creek, and only two miles from the town of Dumfries, (known by the name of Clifton) containing about 220 acres. About two thirds of this tract is in wood—a part of the cleared land well enclosed. There is on this tract a good dwelling house, stables, &c.; and convenient to the dwelling house a grist mill, containing two pair of stones—one of burr, new, five feet diameter; the other Cologne. The mill is lately built. Every part of the gear new, and completely fitted for merchant work. The mill better secured from floods than any I am acquainted with, having but 5 feet of dam, with a short race, to admit of fall for a twenty-four feet overshoot water wheel. In fact, the land is of good quality; the situation handsome and healthy; the stream a good one; and the mill new, spacious, and well finished, and lying in the most direct road for a great part of the produce that comes to Dumfries to pass it. Possession can be had immediately, and the terms known by application to me, at Dumfries.

THE proprietors & occupiers of Fisheries on this river, are requested to meet at Brown's tavern in Alexandria on the last Monday in November next, at the hour of twelve o'clock, to agree upon measures for preventing the destructive effects of Tide or Gill Nets, which have been unlawfully set in our waters, and have within the three last seasons so greatly lessened the number of shad and herrings taken at the best landings. It is earnestly and respectfully requested that all interested herein from the mouth of the river upwards, will attend punctually, that we may prepare memorials to the Legislatures of Maryland and Virginia, which are shortly to convene, and that we may act in concert in whatever may be resolved upon, touching a matter of such public as well as private interest.

ALEXANDRIA, Oct. 21.

WAS committed to the jail of this county, as a runaway, a Negro lad, who says his name is HENRY, and that he was sold to some Georgian, from the estate of William Randall, of Fauquier county, Virginia. He is a bright mulatto, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high, and has been in the habit of a race rider for Mr. Rawl. The said lad ran away at Fredericksburg, on his way out. The owner is requested to come and prove his property, pay charges, and take him away, otherwise he will be disposed of as the law directs.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from William Galt, near Fredericksburg, on the Lancaster road, in April last, a Negro Woman, named JULIET, about 30 years of age, 3 feet high, has lost several of her upper front teeth, speaks quick & sharp—says she was sold by a Mr. Darby, of Anne-Arundel county, to some Georgia trader, whom she left near Richmond, Va. and was lodged in Fredericksburg jail, from whence she was sold for her jail fees, & purchased by John P. Thompson, and by him sold to William Galt. It is supposed she is now lurking about the district of Columbia or its vicinity. The above reward will be paid for apprehending and securing her so that I get her.

N. B. Masters of vessels and others are forewarned against carrying off said runaway.

Fifty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY, on Saturday evening, the 11th inst. my mulatto man, named NED, commonly called NED M-RAN alias SNAWTON. He is about 23 or 24 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and was raised in Manchester. Ned is well made, high forehead and large flat nose; had on when he went away a grey coat and pantaloons, but as he was well provided with clothing of various kinds, it is probable he may have changed his dress. It is believed he went off with his wife, who it appears left Richmond at the same time: she is very black, and I believe, somewhat pitted with the small pox, talks a great deal, of short stature, and rather thick made. Ned is very artful, and may probably attempt to pass for a free man; he has a down look when spoken to. The above reward will be given if taken out of Richmond or Manchester, and twenty-five dollars if taken in either place, and all reasonable expenses paid for delivering him to the subscriber.

John Jackson & Co.

James Kennedy & Son,

BOOKSELLERS,

KING-STREET, ALEXANDRIA,

RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from

Lee's Medicine Store,

No. 45, Maiden Lane, New-York, a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDICINES:

Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges.

Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive; and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.

Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz:—The Tere or large round worm; the Ascarides or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitina or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tænia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gums; itching in the nose, and about the seat; convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.

A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent the vomiting and purging of children—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health and strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.

The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of BILIOUS and MALICIOUS FEVERS is recommended

HALL'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases esteemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.

They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual constiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir.

A sovereign remedy for colds, obstructions, coughs, asthma, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions. To persons who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative. Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in Consumptions the stomach and Lowness of spirits back Loss of appetite Indigestion Impurity of blood Melancholy Hysterical affection Gout in the stomach Inward weaknesses Pains in the limbs and debility Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.

A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.

Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.

An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing their root and branch, without giving any pain.

The Genuine Persian Lotion.

So celebrated among the fashionable throughout Europe, is an invaluable cosmetic, perfectly innocent and safe, free from corrosive and repellent minerals, the basis of other lotions, and of unparalleled efficacy in removing blemishes of the face and skin, freckles, pimples, inflammatory redness, scurfs, tetter, ring worms, scabiness, prickly heat, &c.

Hahn's genuine Eye Water.

A sovereign remedy for all diseases of the eyes, whether the effect of natural weakness or of accident.

Tooth Ache Drops.

The only remedy yet discovered which gives immediate and lasting relief in the most severe instances.

Lee's Infallible Ague and Fever Drops.

For the cure of agues, remittent and intermittent fevers.

At the place of sale pamphlets may be had gratis, describing cures performed by the above medicines; the number, importance and respectability of which, fully justify every article of this advertisement.
